

Seattle Refined

Get out of the city and into these cabins

Believe it or not, Seattle summer is in full swing. As we are in the business for trying new things, we thought we would highlight some resorts around the state that have cabins as accommodation instead of a hotel. Why stick to the status quo when there are fun and exciting corners of Washington that NEED exploration?! With that said, enjoy our gallery of some cabins around our beloved state and book away!

Iron Springs Resort

And for the last (definitely not least) resort in our round up is the beautiful, Iron Springs Resort! Located in Copalis Beach, Iron Springs Resort has got it going on. It has gorgeous cabins but the best part - it's on the BEACH.

Here's some of the features that the camping resort and cabins include:

- New kitchens, now with dishwashers
- Renovated and enlarged bathrooms
- New furniture throughout each cabin
- Restored fireplaces or wood burning stoves
- Flat screen satellite tvs with dvd players
- BoseSoundlinkColor in every cabin
- Barbeques and new decks
- New windows, siding and insulation
- Outdoor water spigots and hoses for washing sand off your dog
- Wi-Fi throughout the resort
- General Store stocked with everything you need to enjoy your stay
- Clamming and Fishing Licenses for sale in the General Store
- Clam Cleaning Station and Fire Pit located near the beach
- Private beach access points with miles of beach
- Natural landscaping with native plants
- All new infrastructure including electrical and water systems
- Restored hiking trails

For more information and reservations, click here!

So there you have it folks. New adventures await you. Enjoy the gallery and start planning your summer vacation in a cabin!

<http://seattlerefined.com/lifestyle/cabins-in-wa>