

Travel > International Travel

Iron Springs Resort in Copalis Beach, Washington - Six Late Summer Getaways in the Northwest, from Alaska to Idaho

0 Share

August 19, 2013

< 3 of 6 >

If you're an ocean lover, Iron Springs Resort is one of the best spots on Washington's coast. Perched on a cliff high above the Pacific, it's been a popular Northwest getaway since its opening in 1947. With the recent purchase of the resort by two Seattle couples, it's undergone a major renovation, and they did it right. The 25 cabins are cozy and comfy and fully equipped (yes, they do have TV and complimentary WiFi). But with that big beach right outside your door, you may just want to unplug. On September 14, 2013 the annual Sand Fest is held in nearby Pacific Beach -- individuals and teams compete in a sand sculpture contest for prizes.

Photo by Sue Frause

<http://www.examiner.com/list/six-late-summer-getaways-the-northwest-from-alaska-to-idaho/sunset-at-iron-springs-resort-copalis-beach-washington>